Cheers for the Red, White and Blue

Three classes of children from nearby Christopher Dana School came back a second year to perform at Hollenbeck on Flag Day. Before leaving they gave each Member a "star" necklace. On June 30th Andy Lippman presented his one man show "The Declaration of Independence." (Below left) "Go Dodger Blue!" Members celebrate the Fourth of July by cheering our men in blue, eating Dodger dogs and peanuts, and enjoying the fireworks show after the game. Taking the Hollenbeck bus made it easy to come and go.

Olé!

Cinco de Mayo was observed with South of the Border flair, including a Mexican buffet and a folklorico dance program put on by our very own Members and Elivier Sanchez.

Awards

Petting Zoo

Member John Lanier cuddles a baby goat which came to visit Hollenbeck Palms with Kay Underwood's traveling petting zoo from Big Bear. Kay (with llamas in the center photo) is the daughter of Hollenbeck resident Forest Sloan. Children from the P.U.E.N.T.E. Learning Center and Plaza Community Day Care Center were invited to share the fun with our Members and staff.

Open House

Tony Bartell performs favorites from the Big Band era for Members and guests at our annual Open House and Spring Festival. More than three hundred guests enjoyed a festive day of food, tours and entertainment.

During National Volunteer Week in April, 54 Hollenbeck Members received certificates for their services throughout the year. Volunteer opportunities at The Palms include:

- Serving on the Members' Association Board of Directors
- Working in the Resale Bazaar
- Taking care of the Hollenbeck pets (cats, birds and fish)
- Helping in the Library
- Lecturing in the Learning Center
- Playing piano for events
- Taking responsibility to organize and direct special activities
- Visiting Members in Hensel Hall and in the hospitals
